

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Inductive Grammar Chart
(Unit 10, page 84)

GRAMMAR. The simple present tense and the present continuous

Look at these statements with the present continuous and the simple present tense.

I like coffee.

I cook dinner every day.

I never eat eggs for breakfast.

We're making dinner now.

She's studying English this year.

BUT I want coffee right now.

She needs a new dress.

We like your tie.

NOT I'm wanting coffee.

NOT She's needing a new dress.

NOT We're liking your tie.

FIGURE IT OUT . . .

Complete these grammar rules with the present continuous or the simple present tense.

1. Use the _____ for actions that are happening right now.
2. Use the _____ for habitual actions.
3. Use the _____ with verbs want, need, and like for "right now."